COMPLETE PROGRAM FOR HATCHET SHOW

Management Announces Nine Acts; Dancing to Follow

G. W. ORCHESTRA TO PLAY

300-Mark For Ticket Sale Nearly Reached—Rehearsal Tomorrow Night

The program for the Hatchet show to be held at 8 o'clock March 23 and 24, in the A. & S. Assembly Hall, is now complete. There are nine acts. That is one more than the local theaters give. Arrangements have been made to have dancing each night after the performance. Only 300 tickets are issued and they are going fast. Those who wish to see the show are requested not to wait until the last week for it is probable at the present rate of sales, that "sold out" signs will be tacked up then. The Hatchet has about 45 tickets on sale at its office. All other tickets have been distributed among the fraternities.

The necessary drapery will be purchased this week by the management. The stage is to be so arranged that there will be three entrances. Although there isn't much money for elaborate decorations, the management is going to have footlights and a spotlight.

To Hire New Chairs

In order to increase the seating capacity of the hall, the present chairs will be removed and folding chairs similar to those used in the court of honor will be hired. This will also afford a simpler means of clearing the floor for dancing. David Davis has promised the audience an A-1 orchestra to furnish the music for overture, intermission and dancing.

The probable arrangement of the bill is as follows: A. Overture; B. Rube Musical (?) Act; C. "Recitations"; D. Romeo and Juliet; E. "Snatches From Dixie"; F. "Spring Rite of the Phylum Arthropoda"; G. Intermission; H. "Waiana Hawaiian Quartet"; I. "Perils of Pearline"; J. "K. "Porkchops, Spareribs and Gravy"; L. Orchestra; M. Dancing.

The first rehearsal will be held tomorrow night at 8:30 o'clock in the A. & S. Assembly Hall. Only persons connected with the show will be present. The dress rehearsal will probably be held the following Tuesday night at the same time.

FILM COMPANY TO USE SIMPLIFIED SPELLING

The Universal Film Manufacturing Company will hereafter use simplified spelling on all its film productions. This order was issued to their laboratories upon receipt of rules sent them by Professor De Witt C. Croissant. The company will use the twelve words adopted by the Hatchet at the beginning of the year. The Hatchet also followed Prof. Croissant's suggestion. The words are: Altho, thru, thruout, thoro, thorefare, thoroly, catalog, decalog, pedagog, program, and prolog.

GET YOUR TICKET

Owing to the limited number of tickets issued for the Hatchet vaudeville show, the person who acts first will see the performance. March 19 is the day set to end the sale of those tickets. It is estimated that at the present rate at which the tickets are selling the 300 mark will be reached at that time. No tickets will be sold the night of the show. Those who wish tickets may send coin by mail upon receipt of which tickets will be mailed by the Hatchet. The Hatchet has only 45 tickets at its office. Send one dollar by mail for two tickets now. Any girl in Phi Mu, Chi Omega, Pi Beta Phi, or Sigma Kappa will supply you with tickets if you act promptly. Edward Lewis in the Medical School will supply that department with tickets while Max Rhoads, L. I. Hines, John Copping and Stevens Hughes are handling tickets for Law, Veterinary, Dental and Pharmacy respectively. Show is only one week off.

CAPT.-ELECT HARMON ON D.C. ALL-STAR TEAM

Washington Post Places G. W. Man in Center Position

STARRED IN EVERY GAME PLAYED

Made First Appearance in Davis & Elkins Game—Scored 135 Points in Nine Games

Captain-elect Harmon, of the G. W. U. basketball team, was selected as center of the All-Star Collegiate Basketball Team of the District of Columbia by the Washington Post. Georgetown had O'Lone and Fees, chosen as "forwards," and Glasscott, of Catholic University, and Wenger, of Gallaudet, were the guards selected. Harmon joined the G. W. U. squad in time for the Davis and Elkins game and played in the entire nine remaining games of the schedule. He shot 19 goals from the field and 97 from the foul line for a total of 135 points. In every game he made over one-half of his team's total points by scoring from 10 to 23 points a game. In his 144 attempts from the foul line he averaged 7 out of 10, which is more remarkable as six of the nine games were on foreign floors.

It might be stated that Harmon is a very active man in floor work, but plays an unusually clean game, having but twelve fouls called on him in his nine full games. He has earned his position as center on the All-Star South Atlantic Collegiate Team during this season, and according to Manager Daidy undoubtedly will be selected by the authorities.

G. W. APPROVES PLAN FOR AMBULANCE CORPS

Mass Meeting Tomorrow, at Willard, of All University Students in District

A mass meeting of the students of George Washington, Georgetown and Catholic Universities has been called by Dr. Ryan Deveraux, of Chevy Chase, for tomorrow at 4:30 o'clock at the Willard for the purpose of organizing an ambulance corps for the District.

At the time the Hatchet went to press Dr. Deveraux could not be reached, but his son, Joseph Deveraux, explained the organization. It is planned to make the unit a strictly University affair. Already all of the local universities have approved the plan.

The corps will consist of five officers and 86 men. Dr. Ryan will be captain while Doctor Nevil Monroe Hopkins, of G. W., and Dr. Scott Breckinridge will be lieutenants. Ten thousand dollars is already available for the organization of this unit. It was raised by popular subscription.

ALUMNI REUNION APRIL 13

The Alumni reunion which was expected to take place at Rauscher's April 11, has been changed to April 13. There will be a short business meeting followed by a buffet supper. The men's glee club and the women's glee club are expected to give vocal selections. There will be dancing from 10 o'clock on, it has been announced. Tickets are $1 per person.

MEN FOR RED CROSS WORK

Miss Mable Boardman, who is interested in a G. W. Red Cross course, has announced that she would like to have men interested in that work call her by phone next Wednesday, Main 3111. Athletes are especially urged to report.

RELIEF CAMPAIGN FOR FRENCH ORPHANS

Hatchet Will Receive Contributions of Ten Cents Or A Quarter From Students

TO RAISE $75 OR MORE

The Hatchet, this week, is starting a campaign for the benefit of the slow-starving orphaned French children. These children whose fathers have been killed in battle now depend on the generosity of the French public and American relief funds for their existence. It has been figured by French authorities that a child may live on six cents a day. Such meagre rations have proved insufficient for those growing children. The same authorities state that for twenty cents a day a child can be clothed and properly taken care of. That would be about $75 a year.

That is the sum the Hatchet will try to raise. If the students prove generous and this mark is reached without effort, the campaign will be kept up.

Prof. Henning Suggests Plan

Professor Henning, who suggested the former relief campaigns carried on in the Hatchet, suggested this one also. He explained the condition of these orphaned children to the Hatchet editors and they believe that they have joined in a good cause.

The Life magazine is carrying on the same campaign. Many college papers and daily papers throughout the country are following its example. The Hatchet appeals to its readers and the readers' friends to help this paper raise that small sum.

When a sum of money is raised that will care for one child a year, that child theoretically belongs to the person or organization which raised the money until the money is exhausted. Professor Henning and the Hatchet have contributed already to this fund in which it is hoped the students will join.

Small Sums Asked

The small sum of ten cents or a quarter is asked from every student at G. W. Persons may send their contribution to the Hatchet, 2023 G street and their name will be published in these columns. Organizations and fraternities contributing as such, also will have their names published here. The amount contributed will not be published if the sender so desires.

A circular letter has been sent to each fraternity at the University. Next week the relative standing of these orders will be published.

MEDICAL SOCIETY TO MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the George Washington University Medical Society will be held on Saturday evening, March 17, at 8 o'clock sharp, in the Medical School, 1325 H street. The program includes an essay by Dr. Henry K. Craig, "The Nomenclature of Modern Medicine," and three case reports, "Dermatitis Facialis (3 cases)" by Dr. A. C. Simpson, "Proteus Infection of the Middle Ear" by Dr. E. G. Seibert, and "Ulcer of Stomach with Resection (with presentation of specimen and patient)" by Dr. Harry H. Kerr.

A smoker will follow the scientific program.

HALSEY APPOINTED ADJUTANT FOR G. W.

University Joins Intercollegiate Intelligence Bureau For War Office

TO TAKE CENSUS OF STUDENTS

President Stockton Appoints Wm. Halsey, Instructor in Mechanical Engineering—Circular Letter to Be Sent to All Students and Alumni

In line with the examples already set by the University in national preparedness an additional step is to be taken. The new move will be to make a complete census of all men students and graduates of recent years to ascertain their special capacities for aiding the nation in time of great need. An association known as The Intercollegiate Intelligence Bureau, was recently organized to carry on this work thruout the colleges of the United States and it has the approval of many government officials.

President Stockton has appointed Wm. D. Halsey, instructor in mechanical engineering, to serve as adjutant for the Bureau at G. W. In the near future, information sheets will be sent to all men students and alumni of recent years and an additional opportunity will be given the University to show its stand on preparedness.

To Report All Information

The plan consists of having a man, known as an adjutant, at each college whose work will be to obtain from the students and alumni a statement of their abilities and particular lines of work. A complete record of the information thus obtained will be made and indexed for instant reference. The idea is to make it possible for every man to serve his country in time of need, to the very best of his ability.

The adjutant's duty is to have such a system that he may answer the following telegram in short order:

"Department of War wants 250 trained men in ... for ... How many will ... send ... by 1917?"

BALTIMORE TEAM LOSES TO G. W. GIRLS

Girls' Basketball Team Trims E. H. S. A. By 31 to 26

The girls' basketball team won from Eastern High School Alumnae of Baltimore, last Saturday, 31-26. The game was played on the Eastern High School floor at Baltimore, 4:00 p. m. It was one of the most difficult games of the season, but the two teams played evenly until near the end. Captain "Ted" Seibold was at her best, throwing 14 free goals. Miss Elsie Nichols substituted as guard for Miss Charlotte Stimpson in the second half and played very well, especially considering it was the first time she has played on the regular team. Mrs. Lewis, coach, Misses Elizabeth Davis, manager, Dorothy Davis and Gertrude Walter, accompanied the team.

TOSSERS BEAT HOLTON ARMS

Monday afternoon, with this same line-up, the team defeated Holton Arms, 37-16, in a game somewhat harder than the score indicates. The guards, Misses Charlotte Stimpson, Margaret Bristow and in the second half Miss Elizabeth Davis, did excellent work in keeping their opponents from scoring. Miss Seibold again demonstrated how goals of all kinds are made.

TO ELECT SECOND COUNCIL IN APRIL

Candidates Must Have Names In By Tuesday Night

H. C. DAVIS ADDRESSES BODY

Eligibility Rules For Awarding W's Passed—Colliflower Lauded In Resolution

Plans for the election of the Second Student Council of G. W. and a discussion and adoption of eligibility rules for awarding letters for all athletes, occupied the most of the last meeting of the Council, held Monday in the Law School. Other new business was the appointment of a committee to devise plans for renewing the student tax for next year. This committee is composed of John S. Bixler, chairman, Miss Martha McGrew and W. S. James. Such a campaign, it was decided, would be held in the middle of April.

Election In April

The annual election of councilmen takes place in April so it was decided to issue a call for candidates for the positions. Names of persons must be sent to the Hatchet or presented to the councilmen for presentation at its next meeting Tuesday night.

H. C. Davis, a member of the Board of Trustees, addressed the council on the alumni reunion which is to be held at Rauscher's April 13. Mr. Davis urged the Council to support the affair and also asked the Hatchet to give it as much publicity as possible. He said that there would be only a brief business meeting which would be followed by a buffet supper. Both the men's and girls' glee clubs would give vocal selections and it is hoped that the Players will give a skit. There is to be no payment of fees. From 10 o'clock on, there will be dancing. Tickets for the supper will be $1 per person.

Bixler and McMann Get Letters

It was moved and passed that John Bixler and McMann, members of the basketball team, be awarded letters in addition to those awarded the other members of the team on the northern trip.

The Council also went on record as favoring the awarding of letters to the following football men: Keblar, Hillis, Niederhauser, Giblin, Kerr, Hefferman, Hollingsworth, Genessee, Harmon, brothers, Giacomo, Wilson, Selden, King and Garner.

Hot Debate On Letters

Whether or not the men will be given footballs, too, is yet undecided. Chairman Norris appointed John S. Bixler to look into the matter and report at the next meeting. This question brought up a hot discussion between Groesbeck and James. The former was in favor of awarding footballs while the latter claimed that it wasn't fair to athletes on other teams. The gavel brought the discussion to an abrupt halt and the relative sizes of the letters for each team was discussed by the members. The bulk of the discussion was again taken up by Groesbeck, captain of the basketball team, and James, manager of the track team. Groesbeck was of the opinion that the letters for the different teams should be of different size. James did not agree. He believed that track was of equal if not greater importance than basketball and the same size letters should be awarded. It was proposed that the football W's be eight inches high, while the track and basketball letters be six inches high.

Coach Colliflower Lauded

The athletic committee was asked for a report regarding rules governing the issuance of the letters and Bertram Groesbeck offered a series of resolutions which were adopted. Before offering the resolutions, Groesbeck made a five-minute speech in which he lauded Coach George Colliflower for his splendid work during the past year.

The Council adopted this resolution: Be it resolved, that the Student Council on behalf of the student body express its appreciation of the efficient services of George Colliflower, coach of the basketball team;

Relief Campaign

The Hatchet appeals for contributions to its campaign for Orphaned French Children. Every student can surely spare a dime and we are sure they will when they realize that such a sum as small as it is, will feed some poor child in the war zone for a whole day.

We want to thank Professor Henning for suggesting this campaign. Professor Henning was also behind the Belgium Relief Campaign carried on by the Hatchet last year and the year before last when $200 was raised.

After two years and a half, beneath the upper and nether millstones of war, there comes to light a new peril—the slow starvation of hundreds of thousands of orphaned French children. French authorities claim that six cents will feed a child for a day but that is all. Twenty cents will feed and clothe him. Seventy-five dollars will care for one child for one year. Won't you help us raise that small sum?

Other colleges have provided for five or six children and these children are known as "Harvard Children," "Columbian Children," etc. Help the Hatchet "adopt" one or more for George Washington for a year.

The Artillerymen

The G. W. Coast Artillery Company altho it has seen over a year of service is not up to its maximum strength and it is not receiving the support it deserves from the men in the University. Captain Walter W. Burns and his lieutenants are anxious to receive men at the armory and explain the work to them. If the strength of the Company falls below the minimum it means that men not registered at George Washington will be signed up and with it the "G. W." will have to be dropped from its title when speaking of it.

Altho there is no immediate possibility of enrolling non-G. W. men, yet all doubt should be removed. Beside the physical benefits derived, men should enjoy working out the problems which this service presents. It is probably the most scientific branch of the army.

Many men now in the Company are registered in the evening classes; they work in the day but still find time for drill each Wednesday night. The drill only occupies an hour or two and for that time each man averages one dollar in pay. As one man in the Company said: "The work attached to the service is so slight that when pay night comes around the money seems like a gift." There are any number of examinations which a man can take to elevate himself.

Frequent trips are taken to Fort Washington, where the Company has barracks assigned to it. The Company will camp this summer again at Fort Howard, Baltimore. Men who are doubtful about joining the Company should not hesitate long before they decide because their enlistment blanks must be in some time before the artillerymen depart for camp.

The artillerymen are now "the men of the hour." Do you want to be one of them? If so, go to the First Street Armory Wednesday and talk to Captain Burns and watch the men work. You will be convinced.

The Baseball League

Last year, only at a later date, an interdepartmental baseball league was formed and a schedule mapped out. It was just a repetition of the same old story—quick to start and a death just as quick but much more silent. Is this league to repeat the story again?

There are many good players in the departments of G. W. and all who were asked, expressed themselves more than willing to support such a league. It has been explained that the sudden death of the organization last year was due to the lateness at which it was started and its interference with examinations. It is hoped that this year will eliminate that error.

As long as there is to be interdepartmental baseball the tennis "sharks" might arrange an interdepartmental schedule. All such sports serve to bring the departments closer together.

EDITORIAL PAGE HEAD

The boxed head on this page marks another step taken by the Hatchet in following up the style of the country's largest papers. Some people in the University have said: "Why head the editorial page when everyone knows it is the editorial page?" The answer is given that those persons are ignorant of the styles adopted by the largest papers in the country. Those papers may be found in New York, Chicago and San Francisco.

Percy Spies

Dear Joe:

I couldn't wait until tomorrow night to see what the different acts for the Hatchet show are going to be, so I sneaked in to the private rehearsals and believe me Joe you do not want to miss this performance.

I attended the Phi Mu rehearsal and for a buggy act theirs is one. They have tumbling bugs, book-worms, butterflies and all sort of dancing. Gee when the tumble bug started its jumpings, I came near revealing myself behind the curtain for the tumbler bumped against me. That is all I saw of the act for I was dazed by the blow. I tried to get in the Phi Beta Phi rehearsal but theirs is the most secret of secrets. Even the keyhole had the key in it. Then I heard a great noise on the upper floor I deduced that came from the Chi Omega rooms. I went up and saw the rescue of Pearlina from the villain. I heard a horse gallop and a flying machine start but I couldn't tell which way they went. Anyway I saw the heroine safely off. That must have been the end of their act for I waited and waited and the horse didn't come back. On going by the Sigma Kappa rooms I thought I was dreaming. For their just as in the olden times I saw a Southern scene, the old costumes and customs even to the old negro mammy. It was great. It is called "Snatches From Dixie." I wanted to ask who Dixie was and what was snatched from her, but I recalled that I was a spy. I heard Arthur Fast recite, I heard the Hawaiian Quartet, the rube musicians play and saw Romeo and Juliet without being caught. They were all fine and I am going to purchase tickets for both nights. When I spied on Porkchons Spareribs and Gravy I had a little bad luck. They came out in the most ridiculous costumes I ever saw. And the stuff they brought with them was a scream. I started laughing and couldn't stop. The next thing I knew the sidewalk came up and hit me. But that didn't matter I kept laughing. Really it might have been a cushion instead of concrete for all I remembered. Ah, buy a ticket. PERCY.

STUDENT FOR CLEAN SPORTS

The following letter has been received by the Hatchet commenting upon the athletic situation. The writer is strongly in favor of class sports. All students are invited to submit similar letters for publication in its column.

Editors of the Hatchet:

I noticed your request for letters on the athletic situation in a recent issue, and notice, according to the issue before me, that none has been received. I am a recent addition to the student body and have hesitated to advance my opinion. Since no others have done so, I would like to express my approval and offer my congratulations on the recent stand for clean sport.

May I take space to give a short history of collegiate athletics of recent years in Colorado? Up to 1908, no thought had been given, apparently, to the question. If a man could play football or win races, he was sure of his board, room, and tuition and usually some pocket money on the side. In 1908 conditions became so bad the athletic relations between two universities were severed. It looked as though athletics were dead.

However, a movement for clean athletics was started, and finally resulted in the formation of the Rock Mountain Conference, which at the present time comprises all universities and colleges of any size in Colorado, two in Utah and one in Wyoming. I understand that the universities of New Mexico and Arizona have applied for membership.

From a very weak condition, athletics are now on a sound basis and are flourishing as never before. This change was gradual, some schools fighting it to the last. Every year saw more and more coming into the Conference until all were ultimately forced to see the light.

George Washington has taken the first step. The way lies plain before her. What has been done can be done, as and I see it, the next step is the formation of a Conference here. One with George Washington, Georgetown, Catholic University, Maryland State, Virginia, and possibly Western Maryland, V. M. I., V. P. I., Eastern College and Ursinus would give a wonderfully strong Conference. Even the first five would surely succeed, if they could be brought together. Bring the small ones together first and then show the others one by one that it would be to their advantage to come in. This would be the best plan, I believe.

There are many other phases I would like to bring up, but I fear I have already overrun my space. However, if this will start the ball rolling and open up discussion, I will feel that I have accomplished a little.

I heartily congratulate George Washington for having taken a long step in the right direction, and the management of the Hatchet for its stand in this matter.

Yours for clean sport,

L. O. JACKSON.

SIMPLY CAN'T STUDY

"I can't study at all; where's your glove?" That is the popular phrase in the Art and Sciences Building the last few days. The sunshine bud, the trees and singing birds all have contributed to the majority of "I can't study." No one wants to study. Students just cannot concentrate. Catching the ball without love is becoming popular among the men. It is believed that there will be no trouble in having a large attendance for the meeting of the baseball players Monday.

G. W. MEN SLOW?

The G. W. men are peeved. Yes, recent news item in the daily papers said they were slow because he co-eds could not get them to take them to social functions.

Last Saturday the girls wanted to set up an auto party to go to their ame in Baltimore. The girls gently broke the news that no men were allowed to witness the game. Of course the men did not drive their machines over.

"Now," said one autoist, "are we slow, or just a little wise?"

GIRLS GET BACK AT MEN

The fact that "Percy" made some comment upon the actions of the girls in the main hall some time ago caused them to bide their time and get a blow in on the men. The men slipped up, however, and the girls have been saying:

"Why don't Percy comment on the actions of the men in front of the A. & S. Building? The daily glee club meetings and 'rendering' of popular airs by the men on the campus cannot be termed perfect actions. We prefer the ukulele to such discord."

BASE BALL LEAGUE TO ORGANIZE SOON

J. Lenovitz Calls Meeting of Players
For Monday—To Arrange Schedule

The interdepartmental baseball league of last year will come to life again at a meeting planned for Monday at 12:15, 2027 G street, of all baseball players in the University. The meeting is being called by J. Lenovitz. He expects an organization to be formed similar to that which started last year.

Officers of the league will be elected as part of the business, then a possible schedule will be mapped out. It is the plan of Mr. Lenovitz to start this league so that the teams may get first choice of the diamonds when they open for the spring.

It is possible, too, that the Pharmacy and Veterinary colleges will be asked to join forces and form a team, as it is the opinion of baseball enthusiasts at G street that each of those two departments is too small to support a team separately.

Debate Team Getting Ready For Verbal Clash

The intercollegiate debating team is preparing with zeal to put up a good battle for the University on April 5 and on April 12.

Coach Morehouse has received a letter from Manager Arther of the Pittsburgh team, in which the latter states that they lost one debate on that question when defending the negative, but won one on the affirmative side. He trusts that the Germans will not have bombarded the city before his team arrives to debate the question. In this connection it should be understood that Pittsburgh's team goes on a tour each year, debating the same question with various universities.

The only thing to worry about is that before the date set for the first debate we will already have compulsory military service, in which event our opponents might withdraw, inasmuch as it would then be an undebatable question.

It is expected that every student of the University will make plans now to be present at the Public Library to support the team on both nights. Admission free. Music.

SORORITY TO WIN PRIZE, BUT WHICH ONE?

Each sorority upon receiving a pack of tickets for the vaudeville show claims that it is the one which is to get the first prize for selling the largest number. So far, the race is a tie between Phi Mu, Chi Omega, Pi Beta Phi and Sigma Kappa. One of the fraternities might prove to be a "dark horse," so the girls are warned not to be too confident. Winners will be announced in the next issue.

Bulletin.—Phi Mu ordered another pack of tickets, Thursday. It is now in the lead.

GIRLS MEET TO DISCUSS COURSE IN FIRST AID

Meeting Held in A. & S. Assembly Hall—President Stockton Offers Class Rooms For Work

A meeting of the University girls who are interested in the Red Cross movement was held after chapel Monday to discuss the possible courses which could be arranged. Miss Edith Aultman, who interviewed Miss Mabel Boardman for the Women's University Club, outlined the work that she suggested. A course in first aid to the injured would be valuable in case of war, Miss Aultman said, or a more general course in elementary hygiene and home nursing. This course was recommended by Miss Boardman and after discussion was favored by the girls. It consists of fifteen lessons including instruction in personal hygiene, invalid cookery, sanitation, and simple remedies.

President Stockton Offers Rooms President Stockton has offered the girls the use of the rooms on the second floor of 2027 G Street in which to carry on the work of the Red Cross and the lectures.

Cards issued by the American Red Cross were offered to those who were willing to give their time to sewing, hospital aid, typewriting, interpreting and automobile driving in time of war.

Girls who are interested in the Women's University Club branch of the Red Cross can give their names to Miss Edith Aultman or to Miss Fay Pierce, in order that the matter may be submitted to the University authorities for final approval.

He will give many facts which have never been published.

For years Professor Wallace has been examining the manuscript records in England of the period of Elizabeth and James. During seven years he has handled thousands of manuscripts. He had added at least five to the five signatures of the poet previously known and has found the exact place where Shakespeare lived while he was writing Hamlet.

This Professor Wallace will tell you and much more. A charge of 50 cents will be made to help establish a fund to continue his work.
